there has been no postponement of the St. Clairsville Fair.

THE work on the buildings now be ing erected on the corner of Union and Main streets, is progressing finely notwithstanding the wet weather. A large portion of the rear and southern walls have been built, and the iron fronts, on Main, put in position.

The rain yesterday morning delayed for some time the work of filling up the trench on Main street, between Union and the Bridge Corner, but as soon as it slackened, six or seven stout men went to work shoveling in gravel. We hope the shoveling may continue henceforth without interruption from wind, or rain, or storm, or anything wind, or rain, or storm, or anything else, until the dangerous hole in the street is closed,—to remain so until the city demands that 40-inch water pipe shall be put down.

Let Messrs, Tatnall, Hamilton and Wright beat up for volunteers to aid in dividing the Union, in the event of the bill becom-ing a law, and if they can muster a corporal's guard to go with them, we are much mistaken in the genius of this people and their regard for the in-divisability of the Union."

MANUFACTUREE OF STILLS TO GIVE NOTICE.

Any person (section 25) who manufactures stills, boilers, or other vessels to be used in distilling, must give notice to the collector of the district where such still is to be set up, before any such still, boiler, &c., is removed from the place manufactured, stating—

First. The place where such still, boiler, or vessel is to be used; or, if he does not know, where it is to be sent.

No still, boiler, or other vessel used for distilling, can be set up without a written permit for that purpose from the collector of the district in which it is to be set up, of which permits the collector should keep a record.

THE BOYS IN BLUE PREPARING TO CHARGE.—It is with peculiar pleasure that we announce that the first regular meeting of Company B, 1st Regiment of West Virginia Boys in Blue, was held in the LaBelle Hall, Monday evening, September 24th. Seventy Boys in Blue have already re-enlisted in this company,—a pretty good beginning, we should say. But it only foreshadows what is to come, when the Boys in Biue all over the State shall be enrolled for the closing victory over the rebellion. They will then prove as good with the ballot as they have already done with the bayonet, against the men and their friends, who starved Union prisoners at Bell Isle and Andersonville.

A resolution was offered and passed, providing for the establishment of a reading room where the members of the company can have access to the publications of the day. Other business was afterwards transacted, when the Rev. Trainer, having been loudly called for, rose and addressed the meeting at length, in a strain of eloquence so full of patriotic eim, and sarcastic hits at rebels and their friends, that he was frequently unable to proceed on account of overwhelming appliause.

The Reverend gentleman having concluded his speech, and there being no further business before the meeting, it adjourned to meet at the same time and place Oct. 1st.

BRIDGET RUSSELL, was on her way, day before yesterday, to the place where she lives. Feeling unwell, in consequence of a bad cold, the toothache, and a summer disease, which has been known to turn into cholera, it suddenly occurred to her that a drop of something warm would cure her of all her ills. Seeing the hospitable doors of liferman Renner's saloon, in Centre Wheeling, standing in vitingly open, she passed through, and found the worthy proprietor standing in his accussion, she respituated her complaints, and winningly asked him to pour her out a little wine. This Mr. Renner, kind man, couldn't find it in his heart to refuse, especially as the lady had quite a respectable appearance. Having drunk, she then said down in a comfortable possible appearance. Many people gathered to see it, as it cost no money. Mr. Renner thought it was time the exhibition should close. Accordingly, he advised the lady to depart. She declined. Mr. Renner shut the "summer doors" of the saloon on her. She threw 140 pounds of bone and muscle against one of them, and it was "busted" in. Mr. R. did no more, except seen do rofficer Vail, who proceeded to the scene, and found Mistress Bridget using her umbrella over the head of Mr. Renner's son.

Accident to the county jail.

Accident to Dr. Barabino,—We regret to state that our old friend, Dr. Barabino, met yesterday with an accident, which will interfere with his rinning at the next election for Sheriff. The Dr., however, is perfectly easy about it, and, well assured of being elected, has already picked upon a gentleman friend who, he says, will be able to run the Sheriff's office for him until he recovers, to the entire satisfaction of the people.

The facts in regard to the Dr. ar The facts in regard to the Dr. are these: Yesterday he was from his airy perch, at the head of Fourth street, looking down into the busy haunts of men, when some juveniles of evil tendencies came along, and spying the martial looking gentleman, commenced to throw stones at him, also to call him names. This of course was too much for mortal to endure, and the Dr. retaliated in kind,—but doing so was so unfortunate as to fall upon the pavement, and break his leg square off below the knee.

The broken limb was attended to by a physician, and the Dr. is as comforta ble as could be expected under the cir

This distressing affection, which renders life miscrable and marriage impossible, is the genalty paid by the victims in improper indulgencies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not begin aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling in the improper habits than by the prudent? Hoshies being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of
